"I didn't hold ya, but I still know ya
We will make up, make things right when we get older, friend
Twin, twin, twin
You and I, we drifted apart"

"No diamond rings, that set in stone
To the left, better left alone
Didn't wanna be a princess, I'm priceless"

"Oh, simple thing, where have you gone?
I'm getting old, and I need something to rely on"

"I'm not asking for a miracle
Life right now is so damn beautiful
These dreams we have are not impossible"

"And I know you feel like everything
Is falling to the wind
But don't you let the thunder in
'Cause I know you'll get over it"

"You can ask the flowers, I sit for hours
Tellin' all the bluebirds, the bill and coo birds"

Ok, so here we go...

You already know this, but I still want to say it - I consider you my little sis, fully and truly hehe, like if I had one. In so many ways, I've felt that we're alike - the things we've felt, the thoughts we've had and the struggles. There's no page, no paragraph, or a book big enough to explain what you've meant to me. I said I'll be always there for you, and even if I can't always be strong in the ways I wish, this magazine is my way of showing how special you are to me. I hope every page reminds you of how loved, admired, and deeply appreciated you are.

No matter how badly life crushes you, it will, it can be harder or easier for you from now on, no one knows, but always listen to your heart, it is never ever wrong, and do not give up on yourself. Always be there for you, always learn to take care of yourself, and become an independent, successful and most importantly, a kind woman. God will always bless you, and love you, you will never be alone, when He is there, so please do not give up on life. Cry, then smile and go for it.

I love you forever (with all the icecreams in the world).

SOYON'S HOROSCOPE

LET'S SEE WHAT HAS IT GOT FOR YOU

Your studies are going to test you because the universe is about to prove just how capable you are. This year: confidence > perfection.

You're going to get better at letting go — of self-doubt, of overthinking, of the idea that you need to always be the best. YASSS

You will learn violin. You'll mess up notes, you'll hate tuning, but one day — you'll play something soft and sweet and realize… WOAHHH.

Oh, and... someone's planning a surprise. His name starts with a letter you know. He's been quiet, but he's not forgetting you — just pretending he's chill about how much he cares. dummy heh!

Your heart will feel safe this year because you're learning how to hold yourself through it.

You'll adopt a new emotional support cat meme every month. It's fine. This is your coping mechanism now. New deliverables your way hehehe!

Your brain will grow stronger, from learning how to rest, how to ask for help, how to believe that even when you're slow, you're gonna slayy!

You will laugh so hard at something this year that it becomes a core memory lol.

You will discover a new comfort snack yum yum and maybe..a random moment in a silly game will teach you a real-life lesson.

You'll find joy in the most random place – like a hallway, a grocery aisle, or mid-bite of an icecream idk! BE PREPARED FOR UNEXPECTED COMPLIMENTS yooohoo

Write me back here, Honey!
